

Release of Ownership Horse

This form is to be used as an example only.

This is not to be used as a legal form and was not written by a lawyer. If you are looking for a legal document you should always seek legal advice from a lawyer who specializes in the Equine Industry.

TrentRiders.com cannot be held responsible for the use of these forms in any manner, nor are we offering legal advice by placing these forms online.

By downloading and using these forms, you agree to the above terms.

Date: _____

I, _____ (name of owner) release ownership of the horse named _____ a _____ hh, _____, aged _____, currently owned by us to _____.

I hereby state that I am the lawful owner of the horse and that I have the right to sign over ownership of the said horse; and will warrant and defend the horse against lawful claims and demands of any person claiming that I was not the legal owner at the signing of this document.

We understand that we have no rights after signing this contract to reclaim the above mentioned horse, at anytime and give up all rights of ownership.

_____ will take over all care, financial and otherwise of the above noted horse. We are released from any liability claims of the said horse.

Both individuals agree that this contract is legal and binding and agree not to contest ownership of the above mentioned horse at anytime in the present or future.

Signed: _____ (Owner) Date: _____

Signed: _____ Date: _____